

Dear FCC:

I am deeply concerned by the efforts of Sinclair Broadcasting corp to force their affiliated stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election. This is a dangerous affront to the principles of free press in the U.S.A.

Because they use the public airwaves free of charge, Sinclair is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But their actions to further their own political views, rather than serve the public interest, makes them unfit for licensing by the FCC. This is a good example of why we need to strengthen media ownership rules in this country.

Thank you for considering my comments.
